

Pilar de la Horadada

Area Gallery: Array

Description Image: 267649

Highlight Featurepoint Of Interest 1 Headline: Beaches

Highlight Featurepoint Of Interest 3 Description: Mil Palmeras is the district located just north of Torre de la Horadada, both of which belong to the town of Pilar de la Horadada. Mil Palmeras is a nice little village with all amenities in the form of a grocery store, restaurants, cafes, bars, pharmacy, hospital and hairdressers. Every Tuesday there is a small market in Mil Palmeras where you can buy fruit and vegetables. Bicycle paths run along the entire coastline, making it easy to get around by bike or on foot. Taxi and bus services are also available. The promenade in Mil Palmeras allows easy access between the different coastal towns, Torre de la Horadada, San Pedro del Pinatar, and northwards towards Dehesa de Campoamor. From the promenade you can enjoy fantastic views of the Mediterranean Sea with the possibility of settling down in one of the many nice restaurants and beach bars. Playa de Mil Palmeras The name Mil Palmeras, which means 1000 palm trees, accurately describes the area, as you can find many nice parks and green areas here. Many green areas have been kept between the buildings here, making it attractive for many to exercise or just take a pleasant walk during the cooler evenings. There are also 2 different paddle courts here for the sports enthusiast, one of which has a pool and a nice restaurant with a sea view. During the summer months Mil Palmeras comes alive and offers a lot of activity and leisure options. During the winter season the pace slows down, but with a loyal following of restaurants and beach bars staying open, many choose to get accommodation here. The proximity to Torre de la Horadada and Pilar de la Horadada means you never miss a thing.

Map: Array