Highlight Featurepoint Of Interest 3 Description: District Santiago de la Ribera comes after the district of Lo Pagan. Santiago de la Ribera belongs to the municipality of San Javier which is a town located 4km inland. We have chosen to prefix Santiago as part of San Pedro/Lo Pagan as it joins Lo Pagan along the promenade. Santiago de la Ribera offers many nice restaurants, cafes and ice cream shops. The beaches are of the same fine sand as found in Lo Pagan. Playa de Santiago de la Ribera is located along the restaurant strip and is well guarded by restaurants and beach bars. Here you will find all amenities as well as grocery stores, shops, bakery, cafes, pharmacy, health centre, etc. Santiago de la Ribera has a cosy feel and is a wonderful place to stroll and settle down in one of the nice restaurants and enjoy the atmosphere. There is a ferry between Santiago de la Ribera and La Manga strip during the summer months. This saves you over an hour in the car. It's just the right day trip to take the ferry across and enjoy the stunning sandy beaches of La Manga gut to the Mediterranean. You can also take your bike across which makes exploring easier. La Manga is a special tongue of land that comes alive during the summer months. We recommend you to give it a try.
